Our Mission

We are a collaboration of more than 70 multi-disciplinary advocates helping the children of Essex County who have been abused or neglected. Our partners include the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, State of New Jersey Division of Child Protection & Permanency, and the Metro-Regional Diagnostic & Treatment Center of Newark Beth Israel Medical Center. We coordinate a cross-systems collaboration that leverages both public and private resources to improve outcomes addressing the problem of child abuse, neglect and maltreatment within the 22 municipalities of Essex County. The multi-agency collaboration provides direct services to more than 850 abused or neglected children each year.

We can't provide all of these services without generous contributions from partners like you
